CV Properties 2012 CBA Achievement Award Winner

BOSTON — CV Properties LLC, a commercial development and investment firm principally based in Boston, was awarded the 2012 Landlord of the Year Award at the Commercial Brokers Association of Massachusetts Achievement Dinner, held Thursday, March 7th at the Intercontinental Hotel in Boston. CV Properties was responsible for the two largest Boston real estate transactions in 2012 – Brown Brothers Harriman new headquarters at 50 Post Office Square and State Street Bank’s new consolidated operations build-to-suit at One Channel Center. The CBA recognized CV Properties for “reigniting the Boston office market and adding thousands of new employees to the Seaport District.” CV Properties President Richard A. Galvin led the team responsible for the State Street and Brown Brothers transactions.

CV PROPERTIES, LLC focuses on development and investment opportunities throughout New England. Founded in 2003, CV Properties was formed by its current management and its two principal sponsors, Starboard Capital Partners LLC and Fuller Development LLC, to identify, develop, and manage commercial real estate projects that provide superior risk-adjusted returns. Our joint venture partners are large, institutional investors with broad-based experience in the development, redevelopment and acquisition of commercial real estate in major urban centers.
